

INTERVIEW GUIDE QUESTIONS

1. Could you briefly tell us about Philo Studio and the services that you offer?
2. How many people are currently involved in operating the business?
 - a. Owner/manager
 - b. Employees/staff
 - c. Other personnel
3. What are the different roles or positions in the business, and what are their responsibilities?
4. What are the main activities or operations that Philo Studio performs on a daily basis?
5. How do customers usually contact or reach Philo Studio?
 - a. Walk-in
 - b. Facebook/Messenger
 - c. Phone call
 - d. Other platforms
6. Do customers need to make an appointment or reservation before visiting? If yes, how is the appointment made?
7. How do you record or keep track of customer appointments?
8. What happens if two customers request the same schedule?
9. How do you handle cancellations or rescheduling?
10. What tools or systems do you currently use to manage the business?
 - a. For example:
 - b. Facebook/Messenger
 - c. Google Sheets
 - d. Excel
 - e. Google Forms
 - f. Paper forms
 - g. Notebook
 - h. Calendar
 - i. POS system
 - j. Other applications
11. Which parts of your business process are currently done manually?
12. Which parts are already computerized or handled online?
13. Do you currently use a spreadsheet, notebook, calendar, or another method to record appointments and customer information?

14. Who is responsible for updating these records?
15. Where is customer information stored, and who can access it?
16. How do employees or managers know what appointments or tasks they need to handle for the day?
17. If you were to have a system, what functions should be available specifically to the owner/manager?
18. If you could improve one part of your current business process, what would you change?
19. Would an online system for managing customers and/or appointments be useful for your business? Why or why not?
20. What functions would you want such a system to have?
 - a. “For example, appointment scheduling, customer records, notifications, service management, payment records, reports, etc.”
21. What should customers be able to do through the system?
22. What should employees be able to do through the system?
23. What should managers or the owner be able to do through the system?
24. Would you want customers to receive notifications or confirmations?
25. What reports or information would you want the system to generate?
26. What information should only the owner or manager be allowed to see?